

Methodology Workshop

Date: January 15th-21st, 2010

Organizer: Critical Mass (Dutch foundation)

Participants: 19 adult learners from the European Union, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway and Turkey (including three participants from the Netherlands)

Title: 'The INBOX Methodology: a Toolbox for dealing with Diversity and Conflict'

Funded by: Grundtvig, the European Union's Programme for Mobility and Cooperation in Adult Education.

Language: English

Call for Applications: Critical Mass is looking for adults wanting to expand their skills in dealing with diversity and conflict in their societies, work, neighbourhood etc. Participants will include those committed to personal development, citizens looking for skills and inspiration to shape their active civic engagement, and those interested professionally in our methodology. Naturally, participants are interested in themes like diversity, conflict, polarisation and creative methods.

The main activities in the programme will be sharing experiences, methodology and methods used throughout Europe; getting to know and develop skills to work with the Critical Mass INBOX methodology; gain practical experience through fieldwork and work towards creating a personal action plan to implement lessons learned at home. Interaction, creativity, knowledge and reflection will play extensive roles in the workshop.

More information: www.criticalmass.nu. You can download it from our website, or receive it via email. The application form contains more information on the content and aims of the workshop.

Contact: Ms. Eline van der Noord, email: elinefa@criticalmass.nu, phone: (+31)(0)30-2714956.

Deadline: November 15th, 2009